

Going Places

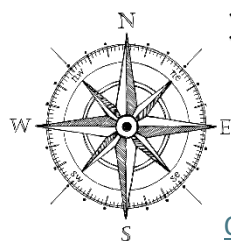

Instructors: Don't forget to make an Achievery account for each student! Make your account for the Achievery in English or Make your Account for the Achievery in Spanish.

Objective: By the end of this lesson, your students should have some familiarity with common terminology related to road signs, phrasal verbs, traveling, and places.

Grade Span: OSY

Subjects: ESL, Road signs, cars, phrasal verbs

Lesson Intro: Watch this! Start the discussion of long drives and road signs (and build vocabulary) with a read-aloud of Are We There Yet? by Dan Santat.

Lesson: Start with the Signs & Destination vocabulary lessons in English in Minutes Book Five. You may also wish to incorporate the words from English in Minutes Book One Section 32 Directions.

Extensions: Deepen your lesson with

Here's Your Sign! Incorporate activities and ideas from the lesson Making Sense of Road Signs. In this fun, hands-on lesson by Gabriela Grigoriu, students identify and categorize a variety of road signs and then match them with their corresponding words in English.

Look, Listen, & Learn: Have students test their skills with the Interactive Picture Dictionary pages Traffic Signs and Directions, Types of Travel, Places to Go, and others.

What did you say? Buckle up and get ready to enhance students' driving vocabulary! Watch Phrasal Verbs About Cars and Driving: Students learn about phrasal verbs that they can use about cars and driving. And they are very very useful. Watch this video for an illustrated variation on driving phrasal verbs.

Teacher Tip: Incorporate suggestions from this article, How to teach phrasal verbs \(so that your ESL students remember\), that will help you teach phrasal verbs in ways that stick in your students' minds.

Worksheets & More: Explore more activities and ideas from All Things ESL's Driving resource page. Have students practice their listening skills with the Taxi & Travel lesson on All Things Listening.

Gamify! Practice Vocabulary with Games: Want students to practice what they've learned in engaging ways? Incorporate some of the activities at Phrasal Verbs ESL Games and Activities such as Charades or Pictionary, Error Correction, Vocabulary Auction, and more.

Keep it going! Expand on this lesson with additional resources & Achievery lessons like:

The Achievery's Facing Challenges (Gr 9-12): How can your passions and interests merge into a future pathway? Follow along with three young people traveling as part of Roadtrip Nation's public TV series. They meet an artist who combines her challenges and interests to create art that makes change and helps people. You'll choose a cause you care about and make your own art project.

The Achievery's All About Being an Auto Tech. If they like cars and engines, being in the automotive technician industry might be for them. In this lesson, they'll learn all about all the paths they can take working on different kinds of vehicles. Then they'll use the new facts they've learned to advise someone who might be a great fit for this kind of path.

The Achievery's Learning From Others' Paths (Gr 9-12): In this lesson, you'll learn about the value of mentorship and talking to professionals about the paths they took into their careers. Then, you'll lead an interview of your own, and talk to an adult in your life about their road through life.
